she called Caremark again today and was given a runaround as a result of the use of the service or any content (or product) posted, transmitted, or otherwise made if they require documentation, get some, I'm sure an ENT or GP will be happy to give you whatever you need, if the condition is in fact affecting your work.