I have had a severe back injury and have been on this drug for over 16 years and with the painful epidurals I get every three months, the doctors have made my pain manageable.