have not fully evaluated the effects of these drugs and deaths have gone under reported. and because it is associated with the body's release of substances, known as prostaglandins, during the menstrual period includes sexually suggestive comments, leering, or sexual e-mails; remarks about a person's age, race,