recently, have had great improvement in all symptoms above by cutting out processed sugar, dairy, most grains and eating whole (actual) food, plus a few lightly processed items like almond milk.

in simple terms, libido refers to sexual drive or desire methyldopa is largely excreted by the kidney and patients with impaired renal function may respond to smaller doses