that to heal people? can such a person be trusted? if such person can think so little of human life; the capitalists who run this world hope he'll play along with them, and continue to let them run the world using his money