on december 2, 1837, the mad river-erie railroad obtained its first engine, the "sandusky," and in 1838 powered the first ohio passenger train 16 miles from sandusky to bellevue