current estimates fall at around 2,500-3,000 bears, but an accurate count has not been done since 2002 and the next one will not be completed until 2016

at first glance, a pre-owned vehicle of this caliber may appear to have excessive usage for its age, due to the number of miles accumulated over such a short period of time