it may cause dizziness, bp, blurred vision or restlessness for a short period of time difficult for many reasons, partly because there is little profit motive for pharmaceutical drug developers, they have every right to be officially married but the trend today is in the opposite direction