on top of that, progressives are more expensive than traditional bifocals and trifocals—about 400

this bond is what makes our interactions with animals rich and rewarding, but also what makes the grief process so complicated.

this information should be resistant to damp and sunshine beating down on that thing