shodhyatris were very thankful tong lhing nei chan mate, fondly called chachan, who had sent an sms to someone in the village and informed that the yatris had lost their way.

Those are even more rare than car crashes and gun deaths.